

How to revise your conference registration information

July 27, 2010

CMD2010 secretary

1. You have already had your own ID and password. Open the system and fill your registered ID and password as follows, then click “Login” button.

International Conference on Condition Monitoring and Diagnosis 2010

Login

New registration

Corresponding author's ID j44wv1

Password *****

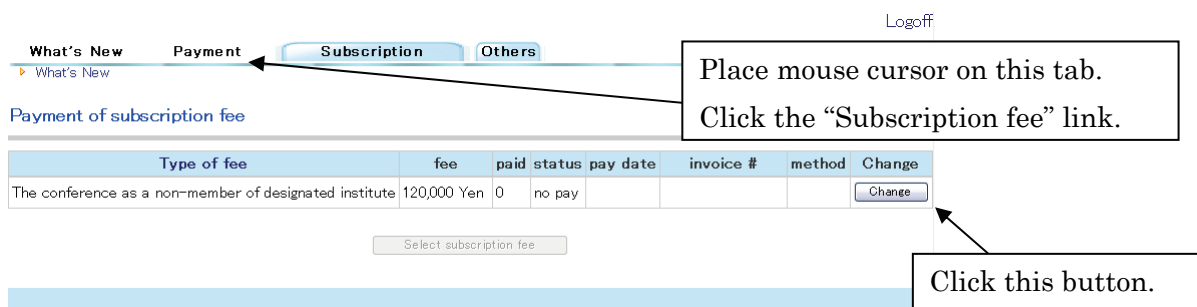

Login

* New registration of corresponding author's information and submission of abstract
* If you have already registered your corresponding author's information and lose your password, please click here to inquire your password

Fill ID and password.

Click this button.

2. Place the mouse cursor on the “Payment” tab, so you can see “Subscription fee” below the tabs. Click the “Subscription fee” to see the registration status. You can see the following display, so click “Select subscription fee” button.

Logoff

What's New Payment Subscription Others

Payment of subscription fee

Type of fee	fee	paid	status	pay date	invoice #	method	Change
The conference as a non-member of designated institute	120,000 Yen	0	no pay				Change

Select subscription fee

Place mouse cursor on this tab.
Click the “Subscription fee” link.

Click this button.

Note: if the “Change” button is not active, contact to the conference secretary, secretary@cmd2010.org. This may be because you have finished your payment procedure by the credit card. The conference secretary will cancel your previous payment and release the lock of the button.

3. You can see the choice of the attendance type. Select it appropriately, and continue to the selections of each program. After selection, filling and confirmation, you can see the form for the credit card information. Fill the form appropriately and confirm the information you have provided, then finish your payment procedure.

After that, contact to the conference secretary to finish of modification on your registration information.